One Fish . . . Two Fish . . . Red Fish . . . Blue Fish Today is gone. Today was fun. Tomorrow is another one. - Dr. Seuss

My Dear Friends,
Congratulations! Cherish the day!
Something wonderful is coming your way!
Read very carefully and pay close attention. . .
For something spectacular, we are about to mention.
Hooray! . . . Opening day is upon us again!
With family and food, laughter and friends!
So, start your year planning; on the visits you'll share.
Join us at Deep Springs and leave your worries and cares.
Come for the scenery, the fishing, and fare;
Come for our water which is beyond compare.
Sit on our patio and breathe in the air
Soak up the sun . . . make a new memory there!
We've made a few changes, to make the ole place pop!
We've been busy this winter, cause we think you're tops.
Our focus is YOU, it's our purpose and passion.
Meeting your needs in a royal like fashion.
Invite your friends, stun them we will.
The trout they catch, we'll prepare on the grill.
Ready your taste buds, your soul, and your eyes.
Prepare for our Solstice (6/29/19), as you awe at the skies.
The colors will burst and the sparks they will fly
Creating a memory that will cause you to sigh.
On your mark and get set; were sure to impress.
After all you're our family, you deserve all the best!

Last season's news: My family grew – I was so delighted to welcome and meet Cayla Rose; my second grandchild, in December!

No one caught a noteworthy fish in 2018. Also, a special thank you to everyone that joined us during our closing festivities.

In closing, it is with sadness that we share with you the loss of our very dear friends: Mrs. Kathie Murch, Mrs. John Gale, Mr. David Udelson, Mr. Tony Misseri, Mr. Don Gatto, Mr. Jerry Eighmy, Mrs. Dave Teitelbaum and Mrs. Kay Vail. They will certainly be missed.

Until we next meet . . .Dingle, Dangle, Dack . . . We are eager to see you and welcome you back!

See you in the spring,

Tom Montagna
